

Grant Thornton

An instinct for growth™

Professional development program

Accelerating your future leaders' growth

Key features

Length	One year Program
Teaching methods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 10 workshops - 3 hours each • 4 coaching sessions - 1 hour each • 5 individual assignments
Target group	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • High potential employees (as identified by the organization) • Future managers / supervisors • Managers / supervisors (0-2 years of managerial experience)
Language	English
Certificate	Certificate of participation from Grant Thornton in Aruba

The purpose of the Professional Development Program is as follows:

- To build upcoming leaders, by uncovering their leadership style and develop their leadership strengths;
- To empower upcoming leaders to overcome challenges that emerge as they take on greater leadership roles;
- To provide a platform for upcoming leaders to come together to discuss and share leadership experiences and best practices.

Interested?

If you want to register or want to know more and have questions you can contact:

Licenne Boekhoudt, MASc.

Consultant
Advisory & Assurance
D: +297 522 1645
O: +297 522 1601
E: licenne.boekhoudt@aw.gt.com

Shelby Maduro, MSc.

Senior Manager
Advisory & Assurance
D: +297 522 1644
O: +297 522 1601
E: shelby.maduro@aw.gt.com

Essential soft skills for future leaders incorporated in the following topics...

Grant Thornton

An instinct for growth™

© Grant Thornton. All rights reserved. Grant Thornton in Aruba is a member firm of Grant Thornton International Limited (GTIL). GTIL and the member firms are not a worldwide partnership. GTIL and each member firm is a separate legal entity. Services are delivered by the member firms. GTIL does not provide services to clients. GTIL and its member firms are not agents of, and do not obligate, one another and are not liable for one another's acts or omissions. For more information, please visit our website: <http://www.grantthornton-dc.com>.