Opportunity as a Marketing & Communication Intern (Curaçao)

What we offer

As a Marketing & Communication Intern you'll be supporting the Marketing & Communication Manager and Marketing & Communication Officer in continually enhancing our brand image and implementing our communication and PR strategy. You're point of contact on all brand guidelines and communications related questions. As a team you'll be working closely together on divers marketing and communication related matters across the Dutch Caribbean. You must be able to work independently as well as in teams and have good organisational sensitivity.

Qualifications

You are a creative and ambitious Bachelor- or Master's student in Communication, Marketing, Journalism or equivalent. You have technical skills and experience in using digital and social media and have basic knowledge of graphic design software such as Adobe InDesign. Strong written and oral proficiency in Dutch, English and preferably Papiamentu are of high importance.

To apply, send an e-mail with your motivation letter and resume to recruitment@cw.gt.com before Friday 30 August 2019.
